B. GCC & Middle East

Non-oil PMIs stay expansionary; Iran diplomacy and Hormuz keep oil and Gulf budgets in focus. Latest verified readings (carried from the 5 Nov brief): Saudi non-oil PMI 54.0 in October (55.3 in September) (Trading Economics / S&P Global) [V] and UAE non-oil PMI 54.8 (55.3), with price pressures intensifying (Arab News) [V]. Brent held near $98 on Friday (about −0.5%) as Iran diplomacy and Hormuz uncertainty pulled in opposite directions [EST.]; Gulf News' Monday front page led with Iran-related security items and a Houthi attack on Saudi Arabia condemned by the UAE (headline only) [EST.]. Friday's Asian tech rout (Kospi −6%) is a risk-off headwind for Gulf equities. Not verified: Tadawul/TASI, DFM and ADX closes, PIF mandates, OPEC+ decisions and any GCC law dated this week.

03 Legislative & Regulatory Tracker — Who Wins, Who Loses

Jurisdiction	Legislation / Policy Change	Affected Sector(s)	Net Impact & Strategic Outlook
Local — Pakistan	Auto/EV policy unveiled and Rs34bn tax relief for the realty sector (Tribune headlines, 7–8 Nov); fifth consecutive fuel cut.	Autos, EVs, real estate, cement, OMCs, refiners	Wins: EV and auto assemblers, developers, cement and construction chains [EST.]. Loses: refiners and OMCs on inventory and margins [EST.]. Net: supportive for construction-linked names; details of both measures were headline-only and need confirmation [EST.].
GCC	No new law dated 6–9 Nov was confirmed. Carried over: UAE Cabinet Decision 174/2026 (effective 1 Jan 2027) caps individual residents at five registered vehicles.	Auto dealers, leasing, fleet owners	Wins: licensed-fleet and leasing models [EST.]. Loses: individuals holding many vehicles [EST.]. Net: minor demand drag; Hormuz and oil volatility matter more for Gulf budgets [EST.].

Jurisdiction	Legislation / Policy Change	Affected Sector(s)	Net Impact & Strategic Outlook
Global — US	Divided government after the midterms: markets price tighter AI-sector and data-centre scrutiny and an 11 Dec FY2027 spending deadline (CappNotes).	AI/semiconductors, utilities, data-centre real estate, defence	Wins: defensives and short-duration cash [EST.]. Loses: AI-chip and data-centre names facing regulatory risk [EST.]. Net: volatility stays elevated (VIX ~26); a stronger dollar and higher hike odds pressure Pakistan's import bill and EM flows [EST.].

04 The Day Ahead — KSE-100 Levels & Desk Stance (Tuesday 10 November)

SUPPORT EST.
173,008
S1; then 172,129 (S2)

PIVOT EST.
173,689
classic pivot off Friday's high 174,369, low 172,810 and close 173,887

RESISTANCE EST.
174,567
R1; then 175,248 (R2)

Desk stance — Neutral-to-constructive after a +4.49% week; buy dips near 173,008, trim into 174,567. PSX is closed Monday for Allama Iqbal Day, so Tuesday absorbs Friday's Wall Street rebound, hot payrolls (+165k) and US CPI at 8:30am ET (1:30pm PKT). A hold above 173,689 keeps 174,567 then 175,248 in play; a close under 173,689 points to 173,008 and 172,129. Drivers. (1) US CPI and ~78% December Fed hike odds versus a firmer dollar. (2) Iran diplomacy and Hormuz headlines, with Brent near $98. (3) Rupee stability at 276.66, fifth fuel cut and the new auto/EV and realty measures. (4) Bank and cement heavyweights that drove Friday's fall. Positioning. Prefer banks and cement on pullbacks; keep tech-linked and refinery exposure light; keep cash buffers for CPI event risk [EST.]. Mood: Cautious — Pakistan Pause, Global Hike-Watch.

Run note: compiled ~12:45 PM PKT Monday. PSX, PKR and US figures are Friday 6 Nov closes; PSX is closed 9 Nov. Sources differed on the payrolls consensus (~59k vs 65k), and oil, gold and bitcoin levels are approximate, not official settlements. Not verified: silver level, Tadawul/TASI, DFM/ADX, PIF, OPEC+, any dated new GCC law, IMF Board timing, KIBOR and Pakistan CPI (carried from the 5 Nov brief). Pakistan auto/EV and realty items are Tribune headline-level. Levels use Friday's published high, low and close.
