01 Executive Dashboard — how the session played against the morning view

Morning view vs outcome. This morning's brief was Cautious, with support at 176,327, a 178,319 pivot and resistance at 179,366 (desk reference levels, estimates). The session ran almost exactly inside that frame. The index dipped to 176,865.05 early, holding 538 pts above S1. It then rallied on banks, E&Ps, OMCs and refineries, helped by Mari Energies' copper-gold discovery in Chagai, and peaked at 179,284.34 in the second session, 82 pts short of R1. It gave back ~1,410 pts into the close to finish at 177,873.88 (+500.11), 445 pts under the morning pivot. The index closed neither at the morning support zone nor back above the morning pivot. A 2,419-pt range on slightly lower turnover. V (Investify feed, BR ticker; intraday path BR, Express Tribune) · desk reference levels (estimates)

Mood: Cautious — a MARI-led rebound stalled 82 pts short of the morning R1 and gave back ~1,410 pts into the close; the week ends +2.3%, but the index sits under the new 178,008 pivot with 176,865 the first support.

02 Sectoral Heatmap — leaders and laggards

| Sector | Tone | What happened and why | Tag / source |
|---|---|---|---|
| Oil & gas exploration | Leader | MARI rose 5.77% to Rs719.30 (+6.76% at 15:47, faded late) after Mari Energies reported significant copper-gold mineralisation over ~1.4 sq km in Chagai, ~50 km east of Reko Diq (company announcement, not independently verified); Mari Minerals signed an exploration agreement with Ivanhoe on Thursday. POL was also in the green. Brent near $96 supports the group. | Mettis, BR, Express Tribune (discovery) · V; MARI price Investify single-source |
| Commercial banks | Leader (intraday) | HBL, MCB, NBP and UBL were among the index-heavy names in the green intraday after Thursday's profit-taking; NBP closed −1.27% (BR ticker). AKBL (−2.13%) was a KSE-100 laggard. | BR, Express Tribune (intraday) · V; AKBL Investify single-source |
| Refineries | Leader | ARL and PRL were named among the heavyweights lifting the index; PIBTL (+1.41%) was among the most active KSE-100 names. | BR, Express Tribune · V (intraday); PIBTL Investify single-source |
| Oil marketing / gas | Leader (intraday) | PSO and SSGC traded in the green. Fuel prices were cut again this week (petrol Rs335 from 12 Nov per OGRA; further cut reports for 13 Nov not confirmed by an OGRA notification read in this run). | BR, Express Tribune · V; fuel per morning brief |
| Fertiliser / power | Mixed-positive | FATIMA +4.46% (Rs152.86) among the top KSE-100 gainers; KEL +0.96% (Rs6.32) on 17.1m shares, with a K-Electric board meeting on Monday ("other than financial results"). NEPRA notified (12 Nov) a Rs25.30/unit incremental-consumption package rate. | Investify single-source; KEL board BSL calendar; NEPRA Investify single-source |
| Cement / insurance / misc. | Laggards | KSE-100 decliners were led by AICL −2.27%, GHNI −1.95%, THCCL −1.81% and NCPL −1.78% — modest losses, no sector-wide selling reported. | Investify · V single-source |

Read-across. The rebound was led by the same index-heavy energy and banking names that drove Thursday's sell-off, which reads as short-covering and selective buying after profit-taking rather than a broad new leg EST. The late fade from 179,284 matches the pattern of the last three sessions: supply in the 179,300–180,770 zone is still active. The "domestic political uncertainty" cited for Thursday's drop was not specified by the outlets read. Globally, Asia was mixed after the Nvidia CEO's exit, while US yields near 5.1% and December Fed-hike pricing capped risk appetite.

Reading the tape. WTL alone traded ~302m shares, roughly 29% of the day's volume, and the top six were all low-priced, third-tier names. Value held near Rs31bn, so institutional activity was concentrated in the index-heavy energy and bank names rather than the volume leaders EST. Top KSE-100 gainers (Investify, single-source): YOUW +19.72%, PSEL +6.85% (Rs1,370.42), MARI +5.77%, FATIMA +4.46%, HGFA +3.65%. Top KSE-100 losers: AICL −2.27%, AKBL −2.13%, GHNI −1.95%, THCCL −1.81%, NCPL −1.78%. Volumes are from the BR "Nov 13" volume table (V, single-source); WTL/LSEFSL prices from the BR gainers table, others from the Investify KSE-100 list where given. Share of volume is a desk calculation against the 1.04bn all-share figure EST. Flow tags describe trading activity only. They are not recommendations.

R1; then 180,427 (R2) · supply 179,300–180,770

Desk read: Cautious. Friday ended a volatile week higher (+2.3%, EST.), but the index closed under its new 178,008 pivot in the third straight session to reverse at or just below the 179,300–180,770 zone EST. A Monday hold of 176,865 and a close back above 178,008 would keep the rebound alive toward 179,150; a close above Friday's 179,284 high would be the first sign the 179,300–180,770 supply is being absorbed. A close under 176,731 would open 175,588. Monday is a full session (09:30–15:30 PKT), with weekend headlines (US PPI tonight, Fed speakers, Iran/Hormuz, domestic politics) to absorb.
